At First Congregational we recognize God as a loving, creating, all-encompassing Spirit who is not limited by usual human boundaries. Therefore, we practice the use of inclusive, expansive, and non-gendered language when speaking of and to God.

We welcome Rev. Nathan Day Wilson as our guest preacher today while Pastor Sarah is serving as guest preacher at St. Peter's UCC in Lamar, IN.

Rev. Nathan Day Wilson is an ordained minister in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). Currently he is director of communications at Christian Theological Seminary, coordinator of the Faith & Values section of The Indianapolis Star and personal trainer for body and brain fitness. You're invited to follow him on Twitter: @nathandaywilson

To the parents of our young children: God put the wiggle in children, please don't feel you have to suppress it in God's house. You are invited toward the front using the Playground if you like. Keep children engaged by quietly explaining the parts of the service, actions of the pastor, worship leaders, and musicians. Sing, pray, and speak the responses; children learn worship behavior by copying you. The way we adults welcome children in church directly affects how they respond to the Church and to one another. Let all ages know that they are at home in this house of worship. As Jesus said, "Let the children come to me."

To the members of our congregation: The presence of children is a gift to our church and to our community. They remind us that we are to share and pass on our faith. It is a gift to have children among us. Please welcome our children and encourage their parents with a warm smile.

Thank you.

CALLS to SERVE

"Here am I; send me!" Isaiah 6:8

NEXT SUNDAY, November 3rd: Daylight Savings Time Ends – Remember to set your clocks back one hour before you go to bed Saturday night.

Sunday Adult Class, Sunday, November 3, 9:45 a.m. – Rich Gibson will lead us through a discussion of "Plymouth's Pilgrims: Their Church, Their World; and Ours." Copies of the discussion guide will be made available for attendees. Come with an open mind to learn more about our Congregational ancestors.

Next Sunday, November 3rd: All Saints/All Souls Day - In our worship service next Sunday, we will celebrate All Saints/All Souls Day. These are occasions in the church year to honor and remember the saints of the church and loved ones who have died. We affirm models and examples of faith who have inspired us and we remember loved ones whose earthly life is over but who live on in God's eternal care and in our hearts and memories. To aide in our worship next Sunday, we are asking worshipers to bring objects that symbolize your favorite saint or loved ones. This could be a photo, a favorite object, a personal item, a gift, a painting, anything that recalls this important person in your life. We will place some tables in the front of the sanctuary where you can place your items before worship. We look forward to your participation in Sunday's worship.

Thinking about making First Congregational your church home? We would love to welcome you into membership. We are planning our next New Member Sunday, November 10th, so let Pastor Sarah know if you are interested or have questions.

Choir Rehearsals – Rehearsals are on Thursday nights from 7:00 to 8:30 PM. We welcome new members. If anyone is interested in joining the choir, please email Julie at juliehouston@comcast.net. We would love to have you join us!

Green Team Tip – Save gas by keeping your tires inflated to at least their recommended pressure. For even more mpg, fill your tires with nitrogen. (If you want to share a green habit, please send it to hoot.gibson.tds@gmail.com.)

Technical Difficulties Resolved - Our Office Administrator's email is back up and running! Thank you for your patience. You can once again email her at shannon@fcindy.org.

October Mission of the Month: Neighbors In Need - Neighbors in Need (NIN) is a special mission offering of the United Church of Christ that supports ministries of justice and compassion throughout the United States. One-third of NIN funds support the Council for American Indian Ministry (CAIM). Two-thirds of this offering is used by the UCC's Justice and Witness Ministries (JWM) to support a variety of justice initiatives. As we continue to hear about this administration's injustices at the southern border our JWM are giving special consideration to projects focusing on assisting our immigrant neighbors and communities. Grants are available to empower local churches to support these justice issues. Please give as generously as you can. Thank You. (source: www.ucc.org)

Pantry Items of the Month – During October we are collecting the following items: pudding and Jello mix, rice and beans, canned soup, paper towels.

Today's Scripture (Inclusive Bible Translation)

Genesis 4:3-9

<sup>3</sup> In the course of time Cain brought an offering to YHWH from the fruit of the soil, <sup>4</sup> while Abel, for his part, brought one of the finest of the firstborn of his flock. YHWH looked with favor on Abel's offering, <sup>5</sup> but had no regard for Cain's offering. At this, Cain was filled with rage and despair. <sup>6</sup> YHWH asked Cain, "Why are you filled with rage? Why are you downcast?" <sup>7</sup> If you intend good, you can hold up your head; if you don't intend good, then sin is a demon haunting your doorway, and it wants you—but you can conquer it." <sup>8</sup> Cain said to Abel, "Let us go out in the field." When they were in the field, Cain turned on his brother Abel and killed him. <sup>9</sup> God asked Cain, "Where is Abel your brother?" Cain answered, "I don't know. Am I my brother's keeper?"
