FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Epistle for the Week of February 6, 2020

Dear First Congregational,

Next week I am participating in the Mediation Skills Training Institute for Church Leaders held at Frieden's UCC, and hosted by the Christian Church in Indiana and the Indiana-Kentucky Conference UCC. Every organization, including churches, experience conflict. This training is provided by the staff from The Lombard Mennonite Peace Center (LMPC) which is a ministry inspired by II Corinthians 5:18 – “All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to God and gave us the ministry of reconciliation.” I am thankful for the grant from the IK Conference to provide this training and I am eager to learn more and share with you about peacemaking from a biblical understanding of Christian discipleship. To learn more, check out their website: <https://lmpeacecenter.org/>

Blessings,

We'll discuss what these theologies are, why they're important, and some of the key voices within these theological movements. After this, we'll then consider their importance for our lives individually and as a church. Join us to celebrate and learn from these important voices in theology!

Board Retreat - Saturday, February 8, 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
(breakfast snacks and coffee available at 8:30 a.m.)

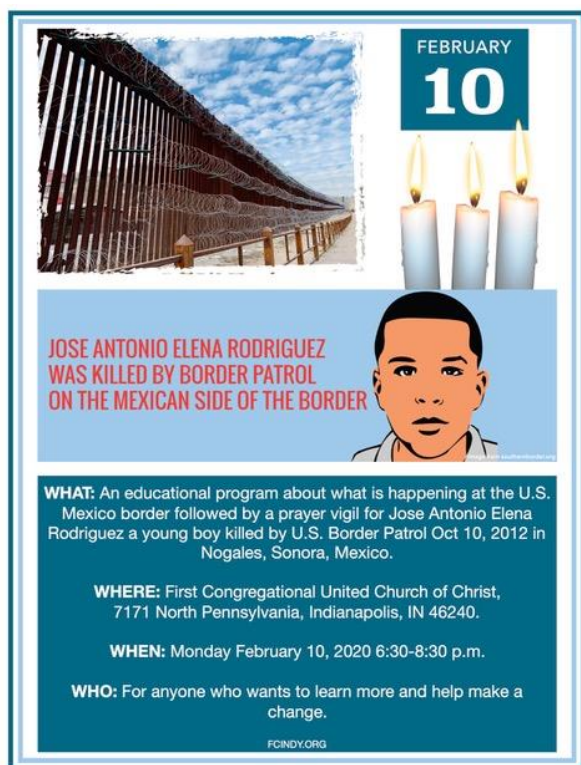

The FC Board Retreat is an opportunity for some socializing, visioning, orientation, and organizing, with some fun thrown in for good measure. We hope to see all board members – new and old – present that morning, but anyone not currently serving on a board is invited to attend as well. Ministry teams are essential to the work of the church, so please see this as an opportunity for meeting with boards about plans and needs. And if you're not currently on either a board or a team, come for the breakfast and socializing! You just may hear something that inspires you to serve in a new way.

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

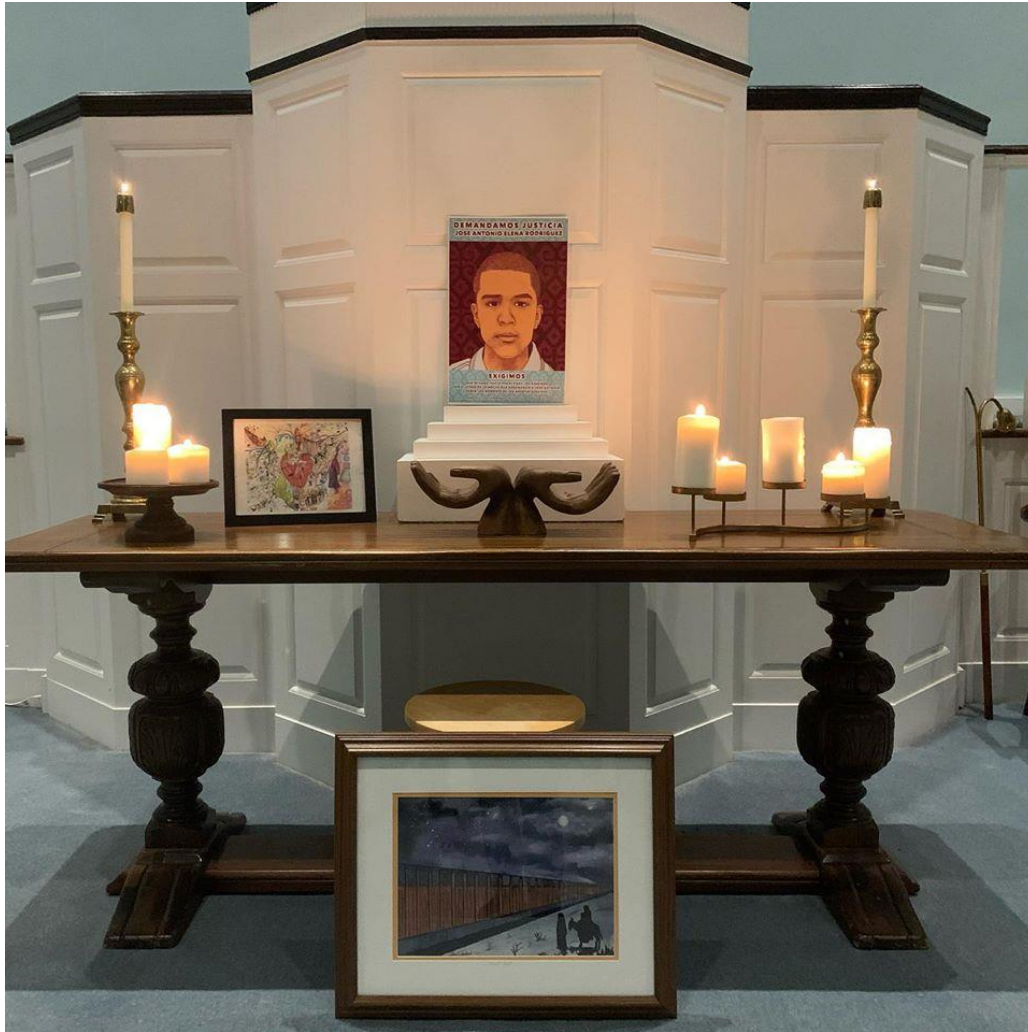

Epistle for the Week of February 13, 2020

Dear First Congregational,

This past Monday, February 10th, several of us gathered to hear about Jose Antonio Elena Rodriguez. We heard from Sandy Wood, Shannon Abbott, and Jose Antonio's grandmother (thanks to Cassidy Hall's documentary) about the injustice of the tragic conditions that lead to children being killed at the border. We heard a powerful poem read by Olivia Bradley about our deep fears of immigrants, the fears that lead to the killing of children. We heard songs of hope offered by Sean Baker and Shannon.

We prayed for justice. We gave thanks for the witness of mercy and compassion at the border, acts of grace in the form of water in the desert and medical care for those in need. Upon the wishes of the family, we will continue to hold vigil until there is justice for Jose Antonio. The next vigil will be on March 10th at 6:30 p.m. at Broadway United Methodist Church.

Blessings,
Pastor Sarah

The topography, the importance of "Water is Life," the distances, the size of Jerusalem, all shaped the drama of the stories that are as real today as they were two millennia ago. She will share about her trip to Galilee and the Jordan River on Feb 16th & 23rd.

A Message from the Moderator

I want to express my sincere thanks to all who participated in the Board Retreat last Saturday, 2/8/20. It was a rewarding time of celebrating FC's 2019 successes, along with dreaming, visioning, and setting goals for 2020 and beyond. From dreams for a larger congregation and children's/youth ministries to remodels of the sanctuary, parlor, and restrooms; from visions of a new mental health ministry to new ways of acting on our commitments to justice and peace; FC's movement forward into this new decade is set on "full speed ahead." Watch throughout this year as we grow into more of what God is calling us to. Better yet, don't just watch – take part in the action! It's going to be a wonderful year, and as Moderator I'm excited to have a front-row seat!

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Epistle for the Week of February 20, 2020

Dear First Congregational,

The scripture says that for everything there is a season...the season has come for our beloved Choir Director Julie Houston to retire from her position here on staff at First Congregational. Julie plans to honor her contract with us and work through the end of June. We are planning a celebration in her honor so that we may publicly thank her and wish her well as she begins a new chapter in her life. Plans for this late spring/early summer Sunday morning celebration are underway and more details to come. Our church leaders are beginning the important work of finding our next Choir Director and I ask that you keep this process in your prayers...please pray that God might lead us to the right person for this moment in our church's life together.

Our congregation is blessed by the leadership of gifted and talented musicians that enrich our worship every Sunday. As our choir director Julie leads our choir and congregational singing with grace, wisdom, and professional skill. As your pastor, I enjoy working with our musical staff and Julie is a delight. On a more personal note, when I first met Julie, I liked her right away and appreciated her easy-going manner and her superb musical gifts. She will be missed. While she is still with us these next few months, let's enjoy our singing and our music together. This will make our hearts and God's heart glad.

Blessings,
Pastor Sarah

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Epistle for the Week of February 27, 2020

Dear First Congregational,

Last night at the church we took our first steps on our Lenten journey together as we gathered for our Ash Wednesday worship. Now as we journey together through this season of Lent, I invite your engagement in deepening your connection to God and to the church. This window of time between Ash Wednesday and Easter invites us to grow spiritually as we seek to be people of peace and peacemakers. Our theme for Lent is Immigration, viewing this topic through the lens of scripture and current events. Our Just Peace Intern from Butler University, Olivia Bradley, is helping to coordinate our study of immigration and so we give thanks for this opportunity to learn from one another.

Through Lenten small groups (there is still time to sign up this Sunday), border vigils (next one is March 10th at 6:30pm at Broadway UMC), the Southeast Association Lenten Breakfast series (starts this Saturday with our own Lianna Campos leading worship), and Sunday morning worship leading to Holy Week, there are several ways open for you to engage in deepening your spiritual life during this season. Soon spring will arrive and the season of Lent will be behind us. But between now and then, let's see how we can grow in our understanding of immigration and how God is still speaking to us today.

If you haven't already, I invite you to pick up the Lenten devotional to guide you each day in prayer and reflection. This is the church's gift to you. Let us know if you would like one mailed to you if you are unable to pick one up at church.

Blessings,
Pastor Sarah

February 26, or April 9 @ 12:30 - 4:30pm, or May 13 @ 9:00am - 1:00pm $35

Implicit bias is something we all have. This workshop examines what it is, how it differs from overt bias, how to recognize our own, and how we move past bias through action. Join us for a day of self-exploration and self-reflection in a safe, encouraging space.

Restorative Practices Level 1 Workshop

March 10 and April 15 @ 9:30 am - 4:30 pm $50

What if there were tools that helped democratize communication? Helped us process the elephant in the room that keeps relationships strained? And helps those who have done harm be held accountable as allow whole communities to be heard, learn from harm, and be supported in meaningful ways in our institutions? Those tools exist, they work, and they are called restorative practices.
