FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Epistle for the Week of November 5, 2020

Dear First Congregational,

Quotes for Thought and Reflection During Election Week:

Ephesians 4:31-32:

Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you.

Abraham Lincoln, 16th President of the United States of America:

“Always vote for principle, though you may vote alone, and you may cherish the sweetest reflection that your vote is never lost.”

Bayard Rustin:

“If we desire a society of peace, then we cannot achieve such a society through violence. If we desire a society without discrimination, then we must not discriminate against anyone in the process of building this society. If we desire a society that is democratic, then democracy must become a means as well as an end."

Audre Lorde, Our Dead Behind Us: Poems:

"It is not our differences that divide us. It is our inability to recognize, accept, and celebrate those differences."

Isaiah 58:6-10:

Is this not the fast which I choose, To loosen the bonds of wickedness, To undo the bands of the yoke, And to let the oppressed go free And break every yoke? Is it not to divide your bread with the hungry And bring the homeless poor into the house; When you see the naked, to cover them; And not to hide yourself from your own flesh?

Adapted from: Prayer for the Elections

by Rev. Shannon Kelly, Missioner for Young Adult and Campus Ministries, The Episcopal Church

God, our Creator, guide us through this election process as a nation, state, and community as we vote for people to do work on our behalf and on the behalf of our communities. Help us create communities that will build your kingdom here on earth – communities that will protect the poor, stand up for the vulnerable, advocate for those who are not seen and heard, and listen to everyone's voice. We pray for this nation that is deeply divided. May we come together for the common good and do as you have called us to do – to act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with you through creation. Help us act out of love, mercy and justice rather than out of arrogance or fear. God, continue to guide us as we work for a more just world. We pray for places that are torn by violence, that they may know peace. We pray for communities who are struggling with inequality, unrest, and fear. May we all work toward reconciliation with one another and with God. Help us to listen in love, work together in peace, and collaborate with one another as we seek the betterment of our community and world. God, our Creator, guide us in truth and love.

Blessings,
Pastor Sarah

THIS SUNDAY

November 8: This week Maddy will facilitate a discussion about the concept of navigating a growth mindset vs a fixed mindset. The link below provides a brief overview of the concept and some examples: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KUWn_TJTrnU. In conjunction, we will read and discuss the daily devotional about growth mindset available on the United Church of Christ website: https://www.ucc.org/daily_devotional_growth_mindset. Lastly, we will discuss how we can develop a growth mindset in our own personal lives, what it means, and how it might change how we live our daily lives.
