FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

E-pistle for the Week of March 7, 2019

Message

Dear First Congregational:

What an exciting time in the life of our congregation. We are following our call to walk humbly with God this Lenten season and that means walking in new ways. I join our moderator Rich Gibson in his excitement about Carol Sowle starting her new role to support the church as Pastoral Care Associate. As we journey together, let us walk with humility knowing that we truly need one another as the Body of Christ.

In our Ash Wednesday service we enjoyed worship using mindfulness movement and meditation led by Shannon Abbott, embracing worship with all of our senses. I look forward to our Lenten small groups and our All-Church Retreat March 22-23 (still time to sign up for small groups and the retreat). We hope you join us on this sacred Lenten journey.

Blessings on the Lenten journey,
Pastor Sarah

Pastor Carol

If you weren't in church last Sunday, among the things you missed was an important story about how we, First Congregational UCC, have done a good thing for one of our own. You may be aware that Carol Sowle has been in discernment for several years. Recently, she decided that she's ready to take the step to become a Lay Minister.

You may not know that the United Church of Christ mandates that a minister must have a position. A person may feel the call very strongly to become a minister; but without position to serve in, it won't happen. Accordingly, we created the position of Pastoral Care Associate. It took the combined efforts and coordination of Pastor Sarah, the Personnel Committee, the Board of Trustees, and the Council to make it happen. (A side note to those who are concerned about the budget implications, and this should be EVERYONE: There is a very small impact on our budget. Pastor Sarah has generously offered to share her expense reimbursement funds.) The culmination was an interview with the Committee on Ministry of the Southeast Association of the Indiana-Kentucky Conference on March 5th, 2019. I am proud to announce that we have a new lay minister on staff, Pastor Carol Sowle!

Please don't hesitate to congratulate Carol the next time you see her. For an extra thrill, address her as Pastor Carol. Until she gets used to it, you're likely to get a blush and a very sweet smile.

- Rich Gibson, Moderator

Lenten Meditation (by Shannon Abbott)

The Lenten season dawns with a call to look deep into oneself, to examine how we can connect with the Divine through our minds, our spirits, and yes, even our bodies. Foreheads are marked with ash, reminding us of the reality of human life. We are asked to reflect on the Biblical words, "You are dust, and to dust you shall return" (Genesis 3:19). At the same time, we are reminded that we are the body of Christ, united as one body. We recognize that there are times when individual members of the body may experience woundedness or brokenness. We remember that Jesus also suffered, was broken and wounded, and that through connection with the Divine within him, was able to overcome. Coming together as one body, we too can overcome the desert times of life through connection with the Divine and recognition that when one suffers, we all suffer. Not one part of the body is greater than the others. In working together as one body, we may all experience healing and wholeness found only when we connect with God through unifying the mind, the spirit, and the body.

So let us begin by intentionally seeking God right here in this moment...

I invite you to sit at the edge of your seat, close your eyes all the way or most of the way, to limit distractions. Bring the soles of the feet to rest on the floor. Feel all four corners of your feet, rolling them from side to side and forward and back, noticing any sensations you may feel as your feet press into the ground beneath you. Our feet serve to ground us in this moment of reflection.

We remember Moses removing his shoes at the burning bush, because he was on holy ground.

We remember Mary anointing Jesus' feet and wiping them dry with her hair.

We remember Jesus telling the disciples to wipe the dust off their feet if any did not welcome them.

If the foot would say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body (1 Corinthians 12:15).

Bring your awareness to your breath, breathing in and out through your nose. Feel the cool air with each inhale. Feel the warm air with each exhale.

It is this breath that gives us life, and when this breath ceases, we return to dust, uniting with the One who made us from dust, and breathed into us the breath of life (Genesis 2:7). Sense the presence of the Holy Spirit flowing through you with each inhalation...and with each exhalation.

We remember the aromas of the frankincense and myrrh that the wise ones brought as gifts to celebrate the birth of Jesus. We remember the inviting aromas of the food Martha made to welcome Jesus into her home.

We remember the perfumes the women brought to the tomb to anoint Jesus, only to find he was not there, for he had risen.

We remember the breath of the Holy Spirit that flowed through the church of the Pentacost, uniting people of all nations and races, as one body of Christ.

If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? (1 Corinthians 12:17b).

We bring our awareness to the sounds around us....the rustling in our seats, the neighborhood traffic or the birds chirping outside...the sound of my voice...the sound of your breath....even the sound of silence. Take a moment to notice and to be thankful for the sounds around you. Also notice the sounds within you, the endless to-do lists we make in our minds, the mind chatter...coming back to your breath, breathing in and breathing out, bring stillness to the chatter, and listen....

We remember Samuel who heard the voice of God, and replied “Speak God, your servant is listening” (Samuel 3:10b).

We remember Isaiah who heard the voice of God saying, “Who shall I send?” and he responded, “Here am I, Lord, send me” (Isaiah 6:8).

Listen for the still small voice of God speaking to you in this moment as you enter into this period of reflection.

And if the ear would say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body” (1 Corinthians 12:16).

Gently open your eyes, looking straight ahead.

Then with only our eyes, roll them up and then slowly around in a clockwise motion...hugging every corner all the way around the eye.....When you get back up to the top, slowly reverse the eye circles in a counterclockwise motion.....Then return your eyes to a forward gaze.

Bring your palms together, rubbing them together until they are warm, and then cup them over your eyes, feeling the warm, soothing energy radiating from your palms, offering gratitude and appreciation for all of the ways our eyes serve us and help us serve others. The eyes have been called the windows of the soul. Use your eyes to not only look at the external world, but use your inner eye to look inside and reflect.

*Open my eyes, that I may see glimpses of truth thou hast for me;
place in my hands the wonderful key
that shall unclasp and set me free.
Silently now I wait for thee,
ready, my God, thy will to see.
Open my eyes, illumine me, Spirit divine!*

The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you...” (1 Corinthians 12:21a).

I invite you to bring your palms to your heart, either with palms together in prayer or palms open flat on your chest, sealing this meditation and all of these reflections inside of you as you begin your Lenten journey.

We remember the hands of Jesus, washing the disciples’ feet.

We remember the hands of Jesus that broke the bread and poured the cup.

We remember Thomas placing his finger inside the resurrection wound in Jesus’ palm.

And as we lift our hands in praise and surrender, we remember hands throughout history, raised in praise of the God who “arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as God chose....As it is, there are many members, yet one body (1 Corinthians 12:18, 20a).

Amen.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

E-pistle for the Week of March 21, 2019

Message

Dear First Congregational:

First Congregational is a place to belong, a place to heal and a place to love. We can think of our belonging as coming from the understanding that we each belong as members of the Body of Christ. What does it mean to be different, equal and whole as the Body of Christ?

We will be exploring this theme at our Church Retreat this weekend and I invite you to join us (whether in body or in spirit) in praying about our faith community as a reflection of Paul's vision of the Body of Christ described in 1 Corinthians 12. Let's look at verses 12 and 13:

For Christ is like a single body with its many limbs and organs, which, many as they are, together make up one body. For indeed we were all brought into one body by baptism, in the one Spirit, Whether we are Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and that one Holy Spirit was poured out for all of us to drink.

What a beautiful invitation...an invitation to belong. You, me, and so many others (plus those we have yet to meet) all different, all equal, coming together, belonging to the Body of Christ, making us whole.

Blessings,
Pastor Sarah

Spring Cleaning? Have gently used professional clothes you are no longer wearing? Dress for Success can give them to people who can't afford interview clothes to help them be better prepared when job hunting. Put donations in the cloakroom by the sign. Thanks!

Green Team Tip

How do you handle potato peelings and apple cores? Simple composting is best, but if living in an apartment or condo, first wrap all your organic waste together in a newspaper or paper bag. It will decompose more easily than scattered throughout your trash.

Food Donations for the Northside Pantry

Donations have been generous and are appreciated. Please keep them coming!

March Mission of the Month: One Great Hour of Sharing

Each year brings new disasters in the US and around the world. When you give to OGHS, you are there helping right away because OGHS has partnerships with local organizations ready for rapid response. OGHS also works with Church World Service to support refugee resettlement and to advocate for refugees and asylum seekers. This is the most important Special Offering of the UCC and one of the "5 for 5" offerings we at FCC have long been committed to support. Please be generous in your support. Use the special pew envelopes or put the notation "OGHS" on your check.

Pantry Items of the Month

During March we are collecting the following items: spaghetti, rice, juices, peanut butter.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

E-pistle for the Week of March 28, 2019

Dear First Congregational:

At last weekend's Whole Church Retreat, "Different, Equal, and Whole: Coming Together as One," we enjoyed fun and fellowship. We worshipped together throughout the retreat, including celebrating the sacraments of communion and remembering our baptism. Inspired by our scripture passage from 1 Corinthians 12, one of the highlights was the time of reflecting on our spiritual gifts as individuals and then sharing them with the group, as a way to celebrate the diversity among us. I want to share with you a list of the diverse spiritual gifts this group of 20 people celebrated:

Peace, Helps, Hospitality, Healing, Service, Faith, Teaching, Listening, Love, Justice, Visiting, Health, Wellness, Writing/Editing, Leadership, Presence, Persistence, Steadfast, Mercy, Knowledge, Administration, Gardening, Baking, Pastor, Prayer, Family, Discernment, Music, Connections, Unconventional, Creative, Organized, Planner, Meditation, Singing, Hugs, Evangelist, Content, Reading, Joyful, Play,

Exhortation, Wisdom, Reconciliation, Connectedness, Directed Love, Giving, Comfort, Learning, Grand-parenting.

What spiritual gifts do you bring to the Body of Christ? Whatever gifts God has given you, know that you are an important part of Christ's Body. As a church, we give thanks for all the different gifts each person brings, and glad that no one person is the same...we are different, we are equal and we are whole.

I want to thank the Whole Church Retreat planning team: Wendy Baldwin, Lianna Campos, Worth Hartman, and Pat Larracey. We are blessed by their faithfulness and leadership. Thank you to all who attended and participated. We hope to offer another Whole Church Retreat in the future so more people can experience a time of meaningful connection...and find a place to belong, a place to heal and a place to love.

Blessings,
Pastor Sarah

Worship

Adult Class - 9:45 a.m.

March 31st: Song of Songs (Solomon)

Explore this mysterious, beautiful, alluring collection of love poetry. Who are these lovers Dr. Wolfe names Rayati (woman) and Doti (man)? We will laugh, blush, and wonder how this racy material got in the bible and encounter Rayati, this assertive, articulate woman who affirms her own sexuality and selfhood.

Worship Service - 11:00 a.m.

Pastor Carol Sowle will preach on "Walking Humbly with God - and Feasting!"

Scripture: Luke 15: 1-3, 11b-32

What's Happening at FCC

Lenten Breakfast at First Congregational, Saturday, March 30th at 8 am

Every year during Lent, UCC churches in Indianapolis take turns hosting Saturday morning breakfasts, including a short devotional service. This year is different: it used to be open only to men, but is now open to all UCC folks, regardless of gender. This Saturday, March 30th, is First Congregational's first opportunity to host in a few years. We'll have plenty of food and fellowship. Our own Rev. Pat Larracey will officiate at the service. There will be a collection, and proceeds will be donated to the Merom Camp and Retreat Center. Please come!

First Congregational's Historic Roots in Indy

On Sunday, April 7, Marion Harcourt, our most tenured member, will give a presentation during the Adult Ed hour at 9:45. Following worship, we'll have a light lunch at church and then board a bus for Marion's tour of historic sites connected to FCC's 162 years in Indy. This will include a stop at Joy of All Who Sorrow, FCC's building prior to our current location. The bus leaves FCC at 1 pm, and it is a school bus, with seating for 44, so invite friends to join us! A sign-up sheet is available, and donations to cover the cost of the event are gratefully accepted!

Jesus Christ Superstar Karaoke

Kick off Holy Week a day early – on Saturday, April 13, from 2-4, we'll be showing Jesus Christ Superstar, and encouraging those who want to sing along. Also, you can learn about the Gospel scriptures which most of the songs are based on.

Poems & Stories

The Mental Health Team is asking for people to share poems and stories on the topic of "LGBTQ and Mental Health." We are collecting these through May 19. Booklets will be assembled to give to visitors to our booth at the PRIDE Festival. Entries may be emailed to Brandi Pudlo: btpudlo@knox.edu. If you would like to send a draft for proof-reading before a final copy is printed, please send an email with the draft by May 1st.

1857 Society

The Society invites all who remember the church in their wills or estate plans, or plan to do so, to the Society's initial annual meeting, to be held at noon on Friday May 3 at Marquette Manor. The lunch meal is complimentary and there will be an outside speaker. Watch for reservation instructions. Commitment forms to join the Society are on the bulletin board inside the entrance to the parking lot. Questions? See Bill Gillette.

Update on "Days for Girls" Project

The IN-KY Conference and Outreach & Service project for putting together 100 menstrual hygiene kits for girls in developing countries is well under way. The response has been gratifying. Cutters are preparing fabric, sewers are sewing shields, pads and drawstring bags, and suppliers have been shopping or checking their own stashes. We would welcome more cutters and sewers. We now have enough Ziploc freezer bags and travel-size soaps thanks to some generous donations! 120 pairs of panties are on order with donated funds. We still need 22 more pairs or money to buy them. We have received a few sets that are not 100% cotton which we cannot use. If you donated Felina or Calvin Klein brands of this type, please see if you can exchange them. We need 100% cotton, dark but pretty colors, and no bikinis or boy cuts. We expect to receive more fabric donations soon but still may need to purchase some more, likely flannel. So we are still accepting monetary donations designated for "Days for Girls." We also need 50 more wash cloths (good quality, regular size in dark, but pretty colors, also 100% cotton). Kohl's and Target are good sources for those. We'll keep you posted on the progress of the project, and thanks for your support. I will have cut fabric sets for shields to hand off to sewers each Sunday and also prepared flannel. Contact Sue Chapman for ways you can get involved!

Green Team Tip

Where do you set your thermostat? As we transition from cold weather to cool, test yourself every day. Try turning the heater off and opening windows on nice days. If it's cool outside, try setting the thermostat a degree or two cooler than normal, and put on a sweater if it helps. Make it a daily practice!
