Pastor's Reflections

Dear First Congregational,

The month of March invites us to make time and space for connecting to our church family and God in meaningful ways. This season of Lent is a time of reflection and preparation for the celebration of new life we find in Christ and the sacred story of resurrection.

We hope you will be able to join us this sacred season in whatever way works best for you, in-person or online, as we continue to experiment and explore the new possibilities related to being a hybrid church community. Thank you all for your graciousness, patience, understanding, and love as we navigate our future together.

I have a feeling that Lent this year will be especially meaningful because of all that we have been through, and continue to experience. Please know that you are warmly welcome to join us just as you are and that you are a valued part of our growing and changing community.

Lenten opportunities:

Ash Wednesday 7:00pm worship on church zoom

Adult Education in-person and on zoom (hybrid) Sundays at 10am

"Five Good Enough Tuesdays" Small Group on the church zoom 6:30-7:30pm on Tuesdays: March 8, 15, 22, 29, and April 5

Thank you so much for your support, prayers, and love.

Blessings,
Pastor Sarah

Pastoral Care and Support: Contact Pastor Sarah at pastorsarah@fcindy.org and (386)478-9012.

Senior Councilor's Report

Larry Eckel, Lead Councilor (February – May)

Barely a month has passed since our congregation convened on Zoom for the 2022 Annual Meeting. Attendance was excellent, participation was vigorous, and the positive spirit that permeated the gathering was palpable. For those who were unable to join us that day but learned the substance of the proceedings by reading the Annual Report, please know that your time and interest are greatly appreciated and essential to the vibrant work of our church.

More recently, the Church Council held its monthly meeting. We were pleased to welcome Janet Selby, who has assumed the role of Clerk; Sandy Wood as our new Member-at-Large; and Judy Fletcher in her role as recently designated Senior Councilor. All four Boards were represented: Wendy Baldwin for Care and Connections; Steve Leatherman for Outreach and Service; Aurelia Glennan-March for Worship and Faith; and Steve Coomer (who is of course also a Senior Councilor) for Trustees. Interestingly, two of the boards - O & S and W & F - are considering adoption of a shared leadership model going forward. As usual there was a good deal of business to discuss, but three highlights of the meeting deserve mention: 1) a guest appearance from Cassidy Hall, who presented exciting details of the next steps in her ordination process; (2) an update from Pastor Sarah on a grant proposal that could provide for future sabbatical funding; and (3) a vote by the Council to return to in-person (hybrid) worship as of Sunday, February 27, so long as the downward trend in Marion County Covid cases continues (and it just went from level orange to yellow!).

As I write this brief report toward the end of February, Black History Month, I am reminded of the following words preached by Martin Luther King, Jr. in a sermon some 65 years ago: "Life's most persistent and urgent question is: What are you doing for others?" Anyone familiar with our church realizes this is a question repeatedly asked - and thoughtfully answered - by the caring, dedicated members of our staff and congregation. May we all continue to be mindful of our Christian commitment to improving the welfare of others during these challenging times.

Yours in gratitude,

Larry Eckel

A brief excerpt from Cassidy's ordination paper:

Throughout my life I've been drawn to unanswerable questions. The mysteries of life seize me like Saturday morning cartoons used to captivate me. I am in awe of the tension questions of faith host—the ways in which doubt can point to our faith, how death can be another form of new life, and the many times we find ourselves in wonder as we gaze at life around us. Jesus's ministry centered on these mind-boggling tension-holders. He drew us into the space of wonder by shaking things up through metaphor and storytelling: "You are the salt of the earth" (Matthew 5:13), "I am the vine; you are the branches" (John 15:5), "The last will be first, and the first last" (Matthew 20:16), "No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment" (Mark 2:21), "all those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted" (Luke 14:11).

WORSHIP & FAITH

Aurelia Glennan-March, Chair

Looking Forward to Lent

The Worship & Faith Board is excited to share the Lenten series this year, “Good Enough.” The series stems from the work of Kate Bowler, PhD, a professor at Duke University, an author, a podcast host, an “incurable optimist,” and someone whose work several of us on the board are fans of.

Have you ever felt like you weren’t good enough? You weren’t skinny enough? You weren’t successful enough? Productive enough? Faithful enough? _____[you fill in the blank]_____ enough? It’s not uncommon to find ourselves in the situation where we strive for perfection or compare ourselves unfavorably to others, and then end up feeling bad when we cannot meet these unattainable goals. We feel like it’s some internal character flaw when we aren’t able to “make it happen.” To lift ourselves up by our bootstraps, to “just do it,” to eat those veggies and not that delicious-looking muffin, to run farther, to work harder.

In fact, this type of thinking is so much a part of our consciousness that we sometimes think that God requires this perfection of us, and we end up continually falling short.

Through the “Good Enough” series this Lent, we hope to share the message that often our lives are imperfect. We pray that together we can find some relief for our frustrations and embrace the imperfections of both life and faith. The good news is that God loves us deeply and is present to us powerfully, even, and especially, in the midst of the imperfect and down-right challenging moments of life.

Our series will begin on March 2nd on the Church Zoom with an Ash Wednesday service. Hopefully we will be back in-person for our hybrid worship on the Sundays in Lent, as we will be sharing some fun skits, insightful readings, beautiful music, and even an opportunity to get involved with our “message for all ages” as we share stories and grow our “Good Enough” faith!

GOOD ENOUGH TUSEDAYS: A Lenten Study with Pastor Sarah!

Want to give up perfectionism for Lent? Join Pastor Sarah on the Church Zoom for five sessions of group discussion of what a “good enough” life looks like for us. We will explore topics inspired by the book Good Enough by Kate Bowler and Jessica Richie. Books are available to be picked up at the church. There's no required pre-reading and sessions are open to all. Beginning March 8th!

Questions? Email cassidy@fcindy.org

Adult Education Worship and Faith

In Adult Ed during Lent, we will read and reflect on a devotion from the just released book Good Enough; 40ish Devotionals for a Life of Imperfection, by Kate Bowler and Jessica Richie. To learn more about the book, go to KateBowler.com and while there, download the free "Good Enough Lent Reflection Guide." The guide is designed to be a journal, with scripture references, reflection questions, a place to write, and a lovely prayer of blessing for each of the 40ish devotions.

Handouts for each week's devotion will be available for you to download via a link in each week's epistle. For those of you who like to read ahead, here are the selections:

Lent 1 3/6 | "Ordinary lives can be holy."
Mediocrity for the Win (161) Psalm 19

Lent 2 3/13 | "So much is out of our control."
The In-Between (210) Luke 9: 21-27; Psalm 131: 1-3

Lent 3 3/20 | "Lots of things can be medicine."
Too Few Sparrows (215) Matthew 26: 17-29

Lent 4 3/27 | "We often believe we are the problem."
To My Body (156) 2 Corinthians 4: 7-18

Lent 5 4/3 | "We are fragile."

Lent 6/Palm Sunday | “You are a group project.”
When Words Fail (200) Luke 19: 28-42

Come and join in with lively and thoughtful sharing as we journey through Lent together.

OUTREACH & SERVICE

Mental Health Team Outreach and Service Board

Did you know Pastor Sarah has written a new book about youth and mental health? It will be published in late April. To get in on the ground floor the WISE Mental Health Team is pre-ordering 10 copies of her book to make available to interested church members in April. Stay tuned for details on how to get a book.

On May 22nd, Mental Health Sunday, we will have a Buzz with Sarah after worship to discuss the book. Stay tuned for more details about the Buzz. Hope you can read the book and join us for the Buzz.

Questions? Contact Sandy Wood: csjlwood@att.net

Need a Lift in Your Spirit? Join us Thursdays for Spiritual Support Group for Mental Health at 5:00-6:00PM on Zoom

This gathering is open to everyone and is an informal time to check-in about how you are doing, get emotional support from church family, and offer prayer for one another as we navigate nurturing positive mental health in these difficult days. We are an open group with confidentiality guidelines. Sessions are on Zoom and led by Pastor Rev. Dr. Sarah Lund. Please feel free to call or email us if you have questions: Pastor Sarah, pastorsarah@fcindy.org, or 386-478-9012. (Image by Etsy artist, GraceEmbodied)

TRUSTEES

Chair, Steve Coomer

New Partnership with the IKC's Disaster Preparedness and Response Ministry Team – The Disaster Preparedness and Response Ministry Team (DPRMT) of the IN-KY Conference works to assist with relief from natural disasters, along with a variety of other tasks. As part of their ministry, they put together work camps, including one that will be held this March in western KY to help with communities devastated by tornadoes in December 2021.

Over the years, they have accumulated a lot of materials and supplies for their work, and needed a place to store them. Recently, our Trustees have agreed to accommodate the DPRMT's storage needs in our building. They will be using the room at the bottom of the north stairwell by the Mayflower Room, as well as the northwest corner of the kitchen. These are areas that our church has not been using for any particular purpose, so we are glad to put them to meaningful use.

The move-in date is set for Saturday, March 12, about noontime. Help from anyone who can assist with moving materials into the church building will be greatly appreciated! Please contact Wendy Baldwin, if you are able to help out, or if you would like to connect with the work of the DPRMT – they are always looking for more helpers!

Green Team: Our Legacy to Earth

We are frequently reminded that the earth is being trashed. From polluted air to fouled oceans to trashed lands, we can't help being dismayed and wondering if the earth is on its way to becoming uninhabitable. We need reminders that our individual efforts, collectively magnified, do matter. We make a difference when we continue to make the efforts needed to purchase thoughtfully, to conserve, and to recycle. By way of contrast to what's happening globally, we can be proud of the way that our church property is being maintained. Thanks to our property manager and her crew, First Congregational is always a pleasure to see, and we drive past it whenever possible in order to see the present and to remember the past.

–Bill Gillette for the Green Team

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Faith & Action Spring Conference

POVERTY
& MENTAL HEALTH

Examining Connections

With Schroeder Stribling, President and CEO of Mental Health America

Wednesday, March 9, 2022, 9 AM–3 PM at CTS

Join faith leaders, lay leaders, activists, and groups from Central Indiana's nonprofit sector to "Push Back Poverty" at the Faith & Action Project's seventh annual spring conference on March 9. This year's event highlights a key factor in generational poverty: mental health. We will seek to destigmatize mental health through candid and informative conversations and equip congregations, organizations, and individuals to come alongside those who fight twin battles against poverty and poor mental health.

Plan to join us March 9 for a day of conversation, edification, and inspiration as local and national poverty fighters address questions such as:

- How can faith communities respond more effectively to mental health challenges?
- How can nonprofit and faith organizations partner with established initiatives to address poverty and mental health?
- How do we recognize and respond to trauma?
- What are the ways we can increase accessibility and scale up effective solutions? Register here!
