PASTORAL PRAYER (from Enfleshed)

Sacred Parent, Faithful Mother, Gracious Father, even when we are deserted by those closest to us, still you do not abandon us. May we too learn to be so faithful to our neighbors, especially those who are persecuted unjustly. Encourage us in practicing companionship with the maligned and solidarity with the defamed until hatred and injustice is no longer, Through Christ we pray. Amen

PRAYER OF OUR SAVIOR (from UCC Book of Worship)

Our God in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

Today's Scripture

Luke 13:1-9

On the same occasion, there were people present who told Jesus about some Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their own sacrifices. Jesus replied, "Do you think these Galileans were the greatest sinners in Galilee just because they suffered this? Not at all! I tell you, you'll all come to the same end unless you change your ways. Or take those eighteen who were killed by a falling tower in Siloam. Do you think they were more guilty than anyone else who has lived in Jerusalem? Certainly not! I tell you, you'll all come to the same end unless you change your ways." Jesus told this parable: "There was a fig tree growing in a vineyard. The owner came out looking for fruit on it but didn't find any. The owner said to the vine dresser, 'Look here! for three years now I've come out in search of fruit on this fig tree and have found none. Cut it down. Why should it clutter up the ground?' In reply, the vine dresser said, 'Please leave it one more year while I hoe around it and fertilize it. If it bears fruit next year, fine; if not, then let it be cut down.' "

A Word of God that is still speaking,
Thanks be to God.
